Women's Day

#BreakTheBias

About International Women's Day

- International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements or rally for women's equality.
- Marked annually on March 8th, International Women's Day (IWD) is one of the most important days of the year to:
 - celebrate women's achievements
 - raise awareness about women's equality
 - lobby for accelerated gender parity
 - fundraise for female-focused charities

Imagine...

- Imagine a gender equal world.
- A world free of bias, stereotypes, and discrimination.
- A world that is diverse, equitable, and inclusive.
- A world where difference is valued and celebrated.
- Together we can forge women's equality.
- Collectively we can all #BreakTheBias.

8B have decided to raise money for 'Equity Now' which helps create a just world where women and girls have the same rights as men and boys by tackling difficult issues, challenging ingrained cultural assumptions, calling out inequality, and using the power of the law to create enduring equality.

We will be holding a non uniform day on FRIDAY 11th MARCH. Please bring in £2 if you wish to participate!
