

Bridgewater Sixth Form – Subject Availability 2027-28

We are intending to offer A Levels in the following subjects from September 2027

| A Level subject availability                             |
|----------------------------------------------------------|
| Art and Design                                           |
| Biology                                                  |
| Business Studies                                         |
| Chemistry                                                |
| Design Technology                                        |
| Drama and Theatre Studies (BTEC available)               |
| English Language                                         |
| English Literature                                       |
| French                                                   |
| Geography                                                |
| History                                                  |
| I.C.T. (A Level)                                         |
| Mathematics                                              |
| Further Mathematics                                      |
| Music (BTEC available)                                   |
| Physical Education (BTEC Extended Certificate available) |
| Physics                                                  |
| Psychology                                               |
| Religious Studies                                        |
| Spanish                                                  |

Extended Project Qualification (EPQ) – offered on an individual basis.